

MISCELLANY

Sown in Tears.

BY FANNY DOWNING.

Chill the air and hard the ground,
Not one ray of sunshine leath;
O'er the moor with hollow sound,
Moaning low, the cold wind sigheth.
Sower, break the stubborn soil,
Lavish in its furrows heaping,
Cease not from thy patient toil,
Sow the seed and wait the reaping!

Summer sunlight on the hill,
Birds in every green tree singing;
Shouts of joy the soft air fill,
Home the harvest they are bringing!
And the sower on the plain,
His long buried seed now finding,
Glittering heaps of mellow grain,
Into golden sheaves is binding!

In the cold and narrow tomb,
Costlier seed we bury weeping,
And in this its quiet home,
Leave it to our Saviour's keeping,
To the end we cannot see,
Faith her heavenly vision lending,
Unto God's supreme decree,
We in meek submission bending.

On our lives a morakchill,
Like o'er wintry landscape lying,
Ever falls—we trust Him still,
On His faithful word relying.
Earth shall melt with fervent heat,
Time be but a passing story,
We our long mourned treasure greet,
Sown in tears, but reaped in glory!

A SINGULAR MONOMANIA.—A man in Barrington, who has for sometime been suffering strange aberration of mind, a few days since tried to force a stone down his throat, using a stick for that purpose, and the result was that he forced a frightful hole through the external surface of his neck, causing death. A post mortem examination of the unfortunate man developed the astonishing fact that his stomach and intestines contained one stone 2½ inches long, weighing 1½ ounces; another stone, of irregular shape, 1½ inches in diameter, weighing 1 ounce; another stone, 1 inch in diameter, of the same weight; a piece of corn cob, 2½ inches in length; a wooden handle, such as is used to spin tops, 4½ inches long, and half an inch square at the end; another stick 2½ inches long, and over half an inch wide; and a corb husk, 14 inches long, which had been thrust down his throat without chewing. The case was very remarkable.

MR. T. A. TOBIN, who was for a length of time connected with the old firm of Hotchkiss, Fenner & Bennett, has an interest in the present firm, and will devote his attention principally to the State of South Carolina. His address will be Clinton, Laurens District. Oct 3 1mo

To the Citizens of South Carolina.

The termination of a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a removal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity afforded me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted, save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends—to beware of all those spurious and deleterious compounds which, under the specious and false titles of Imported Wines, Brandies, Holland Gin, Liqueurs, &c., have been equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudicial to the interests of the legitimate importer.

Many years of my past life have been expended in an open and candid attempt to expose these wholesale frauds; no time nor expense has been spared to accomplish this salutary purpose; and to place before my friends and the public generally, at the lowest possible market price, and in such quantities as might suit their convenience, a truly genuine imported article.

Twenty-five years' business transactions with the largest and most respectable exporting houses in France and Great Britain have afforded me unsurpassed facilities for supplying our home market with Wines, Liqueurs and Liqueurs of the best and most approved brands in Europe, in addition to my own distillery in Holland for the manufacture of the "Schiedam Schnapps."

The latter, so long tested and approved by the medical faculties of the United States, West Indies and South America as an invaluable Therapeutic, a wholesome, pleasant and perfectly safe beverage in all climates and during all seasons, quickly excited the cupidity of the home manufacturers and vendors of a spurious article under the same name.

I trust that I have, after much toil and expense, surrounded all my importations with safeguards and directions which, with ordinary circumspection, will insure their delivery, as I receive them from Europe, to all my customers.

I would, however, recommend, in all cases where it is possible, that orders be sent direct to my Depot, 22 Beaver street, New York, or that purchases be made of my accredited agents.

In addition to a large stock of Wines, Brandies, &c., in wood, I have a considerable supply of old tried foreign Wines, embracing vintages of many past years, bottled up before the commencement of the war, which I can especially recommend to all connoisseurs of these rare luxuries.

In conclusion, I would specially call the attention of my Southern customers to the advantage to be derived by transmitting their orders without loss of time, or calling personally at the Depot, in order to insure the fulfillment of their favors from the present large and well selected assortment.
